

FEE RELATED FAQ

Q. Why are there two Fire Marshal Fees on my Building Permit?

- A. The first, titled "Fire Marshal LD" on the Building Permit Application, pays for a review by our Land Development Deputy for compliance with fire department access and fire protection water supply regulations. The second fee, titled "Fire Marshal", covers a review of your plans for compliance with the County Fire and Building Codes, as well as all required inspections.

Q. What are the South Santa Clara County Fire District Development Impact Fees and who do I contact for information on them?

- A. Contact the South Santa Clara County Fire District (408) 779-2121 for more information on this program.
