The above services are provided through multidisciplinary Outpatient Services – both County and Contract operated – located throughout the County, including services in Spanish and various Asian languages.

In addition to the Outpatient Services, the Adult & Older Adult Services Division provides a wide spectrum of contracted service modalities throughout Santa Clara County, which include:

Day Rehabilitative Services
Vocational Services
Supplemental Services
Supported Housing
Homeless Shelter Beds
Shelter Plus Housing
IMD/SNF Services
State Hospital Services
Client Advocacy Services
Services for Dual Diagnosed
Crisis Residential and Transitional Residential Services

Adult & Older Adult Service Providers also work in collaboration with:

Acute Hospitals
Family Members
Skilled Nursing Facilities
Custody Mental Health Services
Law Enforcement
Medical Professionals
Public Guardians
Residential Care Homes
Young Adult Transition Team
Other Community and
Special Service Providers

Approximately 11,000 individuals are served each year by programs operated under the auspices of the Adult & Older Adult Services Division.

OLDER ADULT SERVICES

The Mental Health Department recognizes the unique needs of older adults in provision of all the above listed services. Aging, medical and life cycle issues impacting older adults are taken into consideration when providing services to the 60 and older population.
