Martial Cottle Park Master Plan

You are invited to the first Community Workshop for the Martial Cottle Park Master Plan project in South San Jose. This future urban agricultural park is a collaborative planning project between the Santa Clara County Parks and Recreation Department and California State Parks.

The first Public Workshop will be held on Thursday, November 15, 2007 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Almaden Winery Community Center, 5730 Chambertin Drive, San Jose, CA 95118

Project Location

The Santa Clara County Parks and Recreation Department and California State Parks jointly own Martial Cottle Park. The future park is a 287.54-acre property located in the midst of a developed residential and commercial neighborhood of South San Jose, adjacent to Highway 85, bounded by Branham Lane, Snell Avenue and Chynoweth Avenue.

Purpose of Workshop

Members of the community and interested representatives are invited to this community workshop to learn more about the Martial Cottle Park Master Plan project, the planning process and how you can provide input on the planning and development of the park property. Both the County and the State seek your perspective on the goals, objectives and priorities for the planning of the park property to ensure that the Donor's Vision is implemented in the future plans for the development of the park property.

Throughout this planning process, we welcome your ideas and suggestions on future public uses, opportunities and planning issues that should be considered as part of the Martial Cottle Park Master Plan project.
