Santa Clara County Supervisor Liz Kniss to Hold “Roundtable” Meeting on North County Health Care Issues

Meeting with Health Care Providers, Nurses and Nonprofit Organizations to Identify Gaps in North County Health Care Access & Services

Palo Alto, CA: Santa Clara County Supervisor Liz Kniss, Vice Chair of the County Health & Hospitals Committee and a former public health nurse, will hold a “roundtable” working meeting on North Santa Clara County health care issues on Thursday, June 21st at her district office in Palo Alto. The meeting will focus on identifying current services and gaps in health access and service in North County and will include health care providers, nurses, nonprofit organizations, County health service staff and others.

“The very real health care needs of the cities in North Santa Clara County are too often overlooked in favor of San Jose,” said Supervisor Kniss, who represents the 5th District. “Our North County health care roundtable meeting will help us identify the gaps in health access and services in my district.”

What: North County Health Care “Roundtable” Meeting with Supervisor Liz Kniss

Where: District Office of Supervisor Liz Kniss
270 Grant Avenue (at Birch, near California Ave), 1st Floor, Palo Alto

When: 12:30 p.m. - 2 p.m.

Who: North Santa Clara County health care providers, nurses, nonprofit Organizations, County health service staff and others.
