

WHEREAS, Karen Nierenberg has served the community for the last six years as Executive Director of the Community Breast Health Project (CBHP) and in that capacity has provided leadership and vision for the organization and created a strategic plan by effectively collaborating with other local organizations; and

WHEREAS, Karen Nierenberg had a long and distinguished career at Stanford's Graduate School of Business serving as Director of Admissions, Director of Development and Associate Dean for External Relations; and

WHEREAS, Karen Nierenberg played a key role in the recruitment of women and minorities and in their involvement with Stanford's Graduate School of Business through innovations including an annual Women's Conference, the Partnership for Diversity, and Admit Day; and

WHEREAS, Karen Nierenberg has demonstrated leadership in the community in her role as President of Newcomers' Club, school volunteer, and Sisterhood President at Temple Beth Am as well as serving on the boards of the Stanford Hillel Association, the Stanford Alumni Consulting Team and Theatre Works; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, does hereby honor and commend for receiving the Palo Alto Chamber of Commerce Athena Award for attaining and personifying the highest level of professional excellence in business and the community.

KAREN NIERENBERG

PASSED AND ADOPTED, this Twenty-Ninth Day of August, Two Thousand and Six by unanimous vote.

James T. Beall, Jr., Chair
Board of Supervisors

Donald F. Gage
Supervisor, District One

Pete McHugh
Supervisor, District Three

Blanca Alvarado
Supervisor, District Two

Liz Kniss
Supervisor, District Five

Attest: Phyllis A. Perez

Clerk, Board of Supervisors