Subject: EMS Fellowship Announcement

I am pleased to announce the addition of Jessica Pierog, DO as our new EMS Fellow, effective November 9, 2009.

Dr. Pierog is an Emergency Medicine Physician at Stanford University Hospital and will be working with the Santa Clara County EMS Agency during her fellowship training in Emergency Medical Services. She completed her undergraduate training at Wellesley College in Massachusetts with a major in Neuroscience and attended medical school at Western University of Health Sciences in Southern California. After graduation she was drawn to the east coast where she completed her Internship and Emergency Medicine Residency at Lehigh Valley Hospital in Pennsylvania. She has a passion for research, the practice of evidence based medicine, and improving prehospital education and training.

During her time with the Santa Clara County EMS System, she will be working under the direction of Dr. Rudnick, assisted by Dr. Ghilarducci.

The EMS Fellowship is a cooperative project between Stanford University and the Santa Clara County EMS Agency. The program provides an opportunity for physicians to specialize in Emergency Medical Services while actually working within an EMS System.

Please welcome me in joining Dr. Pierog to the Santa Clara County EMS System. In the near future the EMS Agency will provide revised staff contact information. If you should have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at the number provided or via email at josh.davies@hhs.sccgov.org
