

WHEREAS, Erin Brennock has been an energetic and innovative leader in her professional career and in the community, and is being duly recognized as the “Outstanding Woman of the Year in the Mountain View Business Community” by the Mountain View Chamber of Commerce; and

WHEREAS, Erin Brennock’s current position at Synopsys, Inc. is Manager of Community Relations and Government Affairs, where she was given a mandate to move the community program from a grass roots effort to a strategic program of the company, an effort she has effectively done by enlarging the program from two offices (Mountain View, CA and Hillsboro, Oregon), to more than 40 offices worldwide; Erin is seen by her peers as a role model in exemplifying “Synopsys’ values of leadership, integrity and excellence in execution”; and

WHEREAS, Erin Brennock, through her nine years of service in several positions at Synopsys, Inc. and her widespread community activities, has used her collaborative and networking skills to inspire volunteers at home and abroad, including through company work in China and India, working with Girls for a Change to create an evolving partnership, on Synopsys Foundation events, and through her active leadership with the Silicon Valley Leadership Group; and

WHEREAS, Erin Brennock’s community participation includes a significant role in the Mountain View Chamber of Commerce, particularly as Chair of the Program Committee where she collaborated with local non-profits to recognize community leaders during the Celebration of Leaders in 2004, an event she streamlined to meet budget goals and has continued successfully since that time; Erin has also served as a member of the Chamber’s Board of Directors, CEO Search Team, and the Executive Committee;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California does hereby honor and commend for her insightful professional leadership in decision making, strategic planning, and increasing the opportunities for collaboration between businesses and the local community.
