

HIV/AIDS Web Sites of Interest

(Updated February 7, 2012)

www.hrsa.gov This site has information about Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA), who governs the Ryan White Program and many other government health programs.

www.hab.hrsa.gov This is the HRSA link to their HIV/AIDS Bureau. There is a wealth of Ryan White information here.

<http://careacttarget.org> The HRSA Target Center provides technical assistance to Ryan White Planning Councils, Grantees, etc.

www.sccgov.org This is the link to the Santa Clara County web page. All Planning Council Agendas, minutes, and attachments are found here; as well as agendas for the Board of Supervisors and the Health and Hospital Committee (our parent committee).

<http://hab.hrsa.gov/Resources/partamanual/index.html> This is the link for the Ryan White Part A Manual—all of the HRSA rules and regulations governing Ryan White Part A.

<http://nationalqualitycenter.org> The National Quality Center provides no-cost, state-of-the-art technical assistance to all Ryan White Program-funded grantees to improve the quality of HIV care nationwide.

www.projectinform.org is a great place to get information and education about HIV/AIDS. Check out the “Quick Picks” box for “newly diagnosed” and you’ll find a wealth of information.

www.aidsmeds.com is also a great place to get information and education about HIV/AIDS. This site has a link to POZ magazine and other good sites.

www.thebody.org is another good place to get information and education about HIV/AIDS.
