Images of the Month
June, 2011
County Buildings in 1937

Photographs are from the Insurance Records
http://www.oac.cdlib.org/findaid/ark:/13030/kt4h4nd97h/
These photographs can be viewed at the Archives.

Hall of Records, built in 1892 and demolished in 1966.
Old Court House. Building commenced in 1866 and was completed in 1868. A fire destroyed the dome on top in 1931. The building was restored and reoccupied in 1932. The Court House is still used by the Santa Clara County Superior Court to this day.
Hall of Justice. It was built in 1906, destroyed by the earthquake, then rebuilt in 1908. It was demolished in 1962.
County Jail, built in 1871 and used until 1958.
Auto Shed

County Garage
County Quarry
County Hospital, built in 1907 and demolished in 1968.

Detention Home
Map of the Hall of Records, Court House, County Jail, Hall of Justice, and County Garage in downtown San Jose.