Award Nominations
for 2nd Annual County of Santa Clara Suicide Prevention Conference
Suicide Prevention Advocate Award

 Deadline: Friday March 20, 2020 ***

Submit your nomination in one of two ways:

- Complete the online form at www.bit.ly/SPaward2020
- Complete this form and email it to SuicidePrevention@hhs.sccgov.org

Help us determine who should receive Santa Clara County’s (SCC) Suicide Prevention Advocate Award. Appropriate nominees include individuals, schools, organizations, etc. that have made exemplary efforts in the areas of suicide prevention, mental health promotion, and/or improving climates to be supportive of our County’s residents’ resilience and wellbeing. The award will celebrate and honor the progress accomplished in improving the mental health and wellbeing. Last year’s award was presented to Morgan Hill Unified School District.

The 2020 Advocate Award and Suicide Prevention Conference are co-sponsored by the CSC Behavioral Health Services Department and the SCC Office of Education. The award will be presented at the Suicide Prevention Conference, on Friday, June 12, 2020, 8:30 AM-4:30 PM, at the SCC Office of Education: 1290 Ridder Park Drive, San Jose.

Your name (person submitting nomination):

Name of organization on whose behalf you are submitting this nomination:

Name of person or entity you are nominating:

Name and title of contact who should accept the award:

Email address:

Phone number:

Please explain why this individual or organization should receive an award for their efforts in suicide prevention. Word limit: 500 words max