

FREE LEGAL SERVICES FOR CHILDREN

A Medical-Legal Partnership for Health

Do you need help with:

- Working with your child's school district to help him/her get special education?
- Negotiating with your landlord about your child's health?
- Appealing a disability or benefits denial?
- Getting a guardianship for a child in your care?
- Questions about your child's immigration status?
- Help with child support or custody issues (for teen parents)?
- Teenagers in an abusive relationship?

We have FREE legal services for children and youth who get medical care at Santa Clara Valley Medical Center and its clinics. This service is through the Silicon Valley Medical-Legal Partnership Clinic (MLPC). The MLPC is a partnership between Santa Clara Valley Medical Center and Legal Advocates for Children and Youth (LACY). The MLPC can help you in dealing with other legal issues too.
