INTRODUCTION

I. NEEDS STATEMENT

The population of California has changed drastically over the past several years. According to the 2010 United States Census Bureau, there were 4,246,514 persons (or 9% of the population) aged sixty-five years and older in California. It is projected that by the year 2020, the population of those 65 years of age and older in California will increase to 6,622,000 which may represent 14% of the expected population.

As people live longer they also face more problems with chronic illness and disabilities. Nearly half of the population aged 85 or older live alone and are among the most vulnerable and impoverished groups in California.

The change in the composition of our population and the sheer number of older persons has had and will continue to have important implications for our law enforcement community. The number of elderly victims entering the criminal justice system can be expected to increase significantly including those that are victims of physical abuse, neglect, psychological or emotional abuse, sexual abuse, financial exploitation and homicide. Elder abuse affects individuals of all races, religions, socio-economic status and gender.

Traditionally, law enforcement has dealt with crime committed by and against a younger population. This population shift, and the increase in crime targeted specifically against older persons, requires the development of specialized services to address elderly victims of crime.

II. PURPOSE OF PROTOCOL

Differences in practices and policies by the many disciplines that provide service to dependent adults and elderly victims can lead to significant disparities in prevention, protection, reporting and service to those victims.

- The purpose of this protocol is to institute a coordinated Law Enforcement response in order to promote a comprehensive method of addressing abuse, neglect and exploitation of dependent adults and older persons.

- This protocol will provide model guidelines and investigation procedures for law enforcement responding to abuse, neglect and exploitation against dependent adults and the elderly.

- Implementation of this protocol will improve law enforcement’s overall coordinated response to elderly victims of crime. In addition, it will enable officers to more clearly focus on the safety and well-being of the victim and the accountability of the offender.

- Utilization of this protocol will ensure a more coordinated community response with law enforcement, by bringing together health care, social service and elder protective services in serving victims of abuse, neglect and financial exploitation.
SECTION ONE: INTRODUCTION

Specifically, the goals of these protocols are the following:

- Reports of abuse, neglect, and financial exploitation of dependent adults and older persons are to be fully investigated regardless of the relationship between the victim and the suspect(s).
- Collaboration and coordination of efforts with dependent adult and elder abuse provider agencies shall be made in response to elder abuse, neglect, financial exploitation and self-neglect.
- Expedient and full reporting should be made to appropriate agencies on any case of confirmed or suspected abuse, neglect, and financial exploitation, including non-criminal acts, and organized scam/fraud. This should be done regardless of the victim's capacity to understand the consequences of their actions. It is the policy of this protocol that officers utilize the arrest powers granted by law when there is probable cause to do so.
- Immediate effective assistance and protection to dependent adults and elderly victims of crime should be provided and appropriate actions against offenders should be taken. Further, the implementation of these solutions should not result in increased risk to the victim and should not exacerbate the situation.
- Officers will treat all older persons with dignity and respect including recognizing an older person's right to self-determination. Self-determination is a competent person's right to make his or her decisions, including the right to privacy and to refuse well-intended interventions.

III. POLICY COMPONENTS

In order to achieve an effective response to elderly crime victims, this law enforcement agency will utilize the model investigative procedures and promote the following goals and responsibilities:

A. Interagency Cooperation

Interagency cooperation is a goal that requires a teamwork approach. Coordination of law enforcement, prosecutors, banking, medical, court, mental health and victim advocates is necessary for a thorough response to a case involving a dependent adult or an elderly crime victim. For the purpose of this protocol, elder abuse staff shall include personnel from Adult Protective Services (APS), Ombudsman (OMB), State Department of Mental Health Services, State Department of Developmental Services and Bureau of Medical Fraud.

B. Training

Successfully addressing many of the crimes perpetrated against dependent adults and the elderly is complex and requires specialized intervention techniques. Therefore, members of the department who respond to cases involving the abuse, neglect, financial exploitation, and/or fraud of an older person should go through specialized training. Training will include laws impacting dependent adults and elder crime victims, victim and offender profiles, interviewing techniques, investigative strategies, evidence collection and joint investigation procedures with elder and dependent adult abuse agencies. Like any profession, continuing education is critical for the development of expertise. Law enforcement professionals, veterans and recruits, will participate in ongoing education opportunities.
SECTION ONE: INTRODUCTION

C. Communications
The communications personnel will solicit information from callers to determine the facts of the report, the condition of the victim, explain the law enforcement response and needs to the caller, and initiate the appropriate law enforcement response. Referral information will also be provided, when applicable.

IV. MODEL INVESTIGATION PROCEDURES

A. Pre-Investigation – Police officers will:

- Know the prosecution standards for elder and dependent adult abuse crimes including criminal neglect, financial exploitation, and physical abuse.
- Maintain an ongoing collaborative commitment to working with all agencies and institutions responding to crimes against elder and dependent adults.
- Understand the role of police work in responding to crimes against elder and dependent adults.
- Understand the role of all elder and dependent adult abuse caseworkers in supporting victims of abuse, neglect and financial exploitation.

B. Responding Officer responding will:

- Safely and expeditiously respond to the complaint.
- Ensure the safety of the victim and, if assistance is needed, notify the appropriate medical, law enforcement, and social service personnel. In cases of suspected abuse, neglect, and financial exploitation, submit a report to the elder and dependent adult abuse provider agency if a report has not been made by communications personnel.
- Conduct a thorough preliminary investigation including: identifying the victim, suspects, and witnesses, identifying and preserving the crime scene, telling the elder or dependent adult victim what will be expected of them in the investigation, i.e., hospital, evidence collection, in-depth interview.
- Respect and protect the confidentiality and the wishes of the elder or dependent adult regarding the notification and participation of others throughout the investigation.
- Complete the necessary reports, departmental notifications, and transfer information to the evidence collector and the follow-up investigator, if another officer will assume those roles.

C. The evidence collection technician or other officer who collects evidence will:

- Determine available facts of the case by interviewing the appropriate responding and investigating officer(s).
- Assess and preserve the crime scene as in any other crime.
- Identify all possible evidence, depending on the nature of the crime and conduct a thorough evidence search. Photograph and videotape, when appropriate.
- Complete the necessary reports, including documents to transfer evidence, and transfer information to the follow-up investigator.
D. Follow-up Investigators will:

- Consult with the responding officer and any evidence collectors.
- Develop an investigative strategy.
- Videotape/audiotape and conduct in-depth interviews with the victim, alleged offender(s), and witnesses.
- Ensure that all evidence has been identified, collected, properly stored, and processed from the crime scene, the victim, the offender, and other sources (i.e., bank records, contracts, wills, etc.).
- Ensure the victim has been referred to the appropriate elder abuse provider agency or other social service provider, as needed.
- In cases of abuse, neglect, and exploitation, conduct a joint investigation of the allegations with the elder abuse provider agency in the jurisdiction.
- Complete the necessary reports and transfer information to the District Attorney's Office for prosecution.
- Respect and protect the confidentiality and the wishes of the elder or dependent adult regarding the notification and participation of others throughout the investigation.

SECTION TWO: MANDATORY REPORTS

Confidentiality: A mandated reporter is required to give their name. The identity of all persons who report shall be confidential. Violation of statutory confidentiality is a misdemeanor. APS may reveal the names of reporting parties only to other investigative agencies as specified by law. No person required to report abuse will bear criminal liability for reporting. No supervisor or administrator may impede or prohibit reporting.

Violation of statutory confidentiality is a misdemeanor. [W&I 15633(a)]

II. CROSS-REPORTING (Welfare and Institutions Code sections 15630 and 15640)

Under certain circumstances, agencies must Cross-Report incidents of abuse. The purpose of this is to ensure thorough investigations, as well as optimal coordination among agencies when more than one agency is involved.

A. Law enforcement must cross-report to APS or the local ombudsman and, when applicable, to the agencies listed below. Even if the investigating officer does not believe the evidence rises to the level of a crime, a report must still be made to the appropriate elder abuse agency. The level of evidence required of the elder abuse agency to substantiate an allegation is generally less than that of a crime. Moreover, referral of a matter by law enforcement to another elder abuse agency does not relieve law enforcement’s responsibility to also investigate the complaint to determine if criminal violations have occurred.

B. APS and the local ombudsman must cross-report to the appropriate law enforcement agency.

C. Law enforcement and the local ombudsman must cross-report abuse in long-term care facilities to the appropriate licensing agency:

1. Abuse of a resident in a licensed residential care facility or adult day program should be reported to the Department of Social Services Community Care Licensing (408) 324-2112, fax (408) 324-2133;

2. Abuse of a resident in a nursing home should be reported to the Department of Health Care Services Licensing and Certification (408) 277-1784, or 1-800-554-0348, fax 1-408-277-1032. The Department of Health Care Services can be contacted 24/7 at the following numbers: (916) 492-8232 (hotline), (916) 445-4423 (live person), e-mail: cnamisconduct@cdph.ca.gov;

3. Abuse of a resident in a long-term health facility, hospital or adult day health care center should be reported to the Department of Public Health (Health facilities certification and licensing) 1-800-236-9747 or 1-916-552-8700;

4. Some criminal activity might be appropriately referred to the Bureau of Medi-Cal Fraud and Elder Abuse: 800-722-0432 or 800-822-6222;
SECTION TWO: MANDATORY REPORTS

5. Abuse of a resident at a state developmental center should be reported to the Department of Developmental Services (916) 654-3338;

6. Abuse of a resident in a state mental health facility should be reported to the Department of Mental Health licensing and certification (916) 322-7445 or (916) 651-3788.

Note: Prior to making any cross-report of allegations of financial abuse to law enforcement agencies, APS shall first determine whether there is reasonable suspicion of any criminal activity. [W&l 15640(a)(1)]

D. Confidentiality

1. The identity of all persons who report shall be confidential and disclosed only among adult protective services agencies and their counsel; long term-care ombudsman programs and their counsel; licensing agencies and their counsel; local law enforcement agencies and their counsel; the Bureau of Medi-Cal Fraud; the Deputy District Attorney in a criminal prosecution; when the reporting party waives confidentiality or by court order. [W&l 15633.5(b)]

2. The reports and information contained therein are confidential and may be disclosed only as follows:

   a. To the agencies entitled to know the identity of the reporting party as listed in paragraph A above. [W&l 15633(b)(1)]

   b. To persons who are trained and qualified to serve on multi-disciplinary personnel teams which may include police officers, medical personnel and public guardians. [W&l 15633(b)(2)(A), W&l 15610.55]

   c. APS may disclose abuse reports to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the case, including out-of-state law enforcement. [W&l 15640(a)(1)]

   d. APS may disclose abuse reports to elder and dependent adult death review teams. [W&l 15633(b)(2)(A), W&l 15610.55]

   e. The Ombudsman cannot disclose the identity of any complainant or resident without consent from them or by court order. Federal Older Americans Act, Title VII, Chapter 2, Section 712 (d).
SECTION THREE: JOINT INVESTIGATION

I. CONDUCTING JOINT INVESTIGATIONS

In situations where it is suspected that a crime has been committed against an elder or dependent adult, the elder abuse provider and law enforcement agency will discuss whether a joint intervention is appropriate. The primary purposes of a joint intervention are to provide protection to the victim and to utilize law enforcement options that may be available. Each case is unique; therefore, the joint approach will vary depending on the circumstances of the situation.

To ensure a successful outcome, elder abuse and law enforcement agencies agree to work cooperatively and to develop intervention strategies in accordance with the respective roles of each agency.

Agencies involved in the investigation will remain mindful that their focus may differ from that of the other agency or agencies. For instance, while a law enforcement officer is responsible for documentation of the crime, the APS social worker and/or OMB are there to provide supportive services and to ensure the elder is safe. Any conflicts regarding the role of each of the agencies involved in the investigations should be kept confidential from the subjects of the investigation and referred to respective supervisor.

A. Deciding whether to conduct a joint investigation:

Officers may conduct joint investigations with Adult Protective Services (APS), Long Term Care Ombudsman (OMB), the Bureau of Medi-Cal Fraud, the Attorney General's Office or any one of the other agencies authorized to receive a cross-report and charged with the duty to investigate elder or dependent adult abuse. The need for a joint investigation may not be immediately apparent and can be made at any stage of the investigation.

B. Communication during the joint investigation:

Should a joint investigation be deemed appropriate, the agency initiating the investigation shall provide the other agency with information regarding the status of the case. Thereafter, both agencies shall provide each other with periodic updates of their investigation, as appropriate and necessary, to assure effective coordination and efficient use of agency resources.

C. Sharing of investigative reports:

W&I Code section 15640 requires APS, local law enforcement & Ombudsmen to cross-report. This section also provides that APS, local law enforcement and Ombudsmen shall report the results of their investigation of referrals or reports of abuse to the respective referring or reporting agencies. Welfare and Institutions Code sections 15633-15637 allows APS, Law Enforcement and multidisciplinary teams such as the Financial Abuse Specialist Team (FAST) and Elder Death Review Team (EDRT) to share amongst themselves other "Investigative Reports" excluding contact notes, assessments and service plans.

D. Roles of joint investigators:

The APS or OMB and law enforcement officer will discuss the referral or incident information and determine what role each individual will play in the investigation. Decisions will be reached on who will be contacted (referral resources, victim, witness, alleged perpetrator), and where contacts will occur (home, office, police station, other protected setting). Law enforcement and elder abuse agencies will coordinate victim and witness interviews whenever possible.

Law enforcement staff will determine whether a crime has been committed against the dependent adult or elderly person. They will preserve the crime scene (which may include photographing evidence, injuries or conditions), obtain preliminary statements of the victim and witnesses and identify specific violations.

APS or OMB will assess the risks that are present for abuse, the elderly victim's ability to deal with the situations and willingness to accept assistance from others. Arrangements for care may be needed if medical or psychological problems exist which may affect the victim's ability to participate fully in the investigation process. Staff will also develop an intervention strategy that includes the coordination of medical care, supportive counseling, services or other resources in the community, including the need for emergency relocation to a protected setting, and victim assistance for support through the criminal justice system.

E. Cases involving abuse in nursing homes:

There is concurrent jurisdiction between the Santa Clara County District Attorney's Office and the State Attorney General's Office in nursing home cases. The Supervising Deputy District Attorney for the Family Violence Unit at the District Attorney's Office should be informed at the outset of any investigation of a nursing home so that the investigation and prosecution of the nursing home or its employees can be coordinated with the California State Attorney General's Office.
SECTION FOUR: WELFARE CHECKS

WELFARE CHECKS

Adult Protective Services (APS) social workers or staff from other agencies are often in a position of needing immediate evaluations of a person's safety and well-being and at times may request welfare checks by law enforcement agencies. Such checks enable APS to most appropriately coordinate services to victims and ensure safety in a timely manner.

I. WELFARE CHECKS WITH REPORTING PARTY

If the reporting party (RP) needs immediate Law Enforcement assistance to do a welfare check on victims of abuse the following steps will be adhered to:

1. Communications shall ask the RP if there are any weapons, threats, or violence and if this is a life-threatening situation and obtain all pertinent and specific information.

2. The officer will meet the RP at the location given and be briefed about the incident. If appropriate, both parties will conduct the welfare check.

3. APS' responsibilities are to assess for risk, investigate abuse and provide interventions and services to the victims. The police officer responsibilities are to investigate and document the incident for possible prosecution. The officer will document the incident on a crime report even if the case is unfounded.

4. The officers shall check the following:
   a. The condition of the home.
   b. The ability of the individual to recognize and communicate their most basic needs.
   c. The general appearance of the person.
   d. The presence or lack of food, water or electricity in the home.
   e. Signs of any significant medical needs, e.g. bed sores, odor, feces or urine, etc.
   f. An altered mental state.
   g. Quality of relationships with others in home.
   h. The ability to enlist assistance of others when needed.

SECTION FIVE: W&I 5150

REQUIREMENTS FOR PROTECTIVE CUSTODY OR DETENTION

I. PROBABLE CAUSE REQUIRED

A peace officer may upon probable cause take or cause to be taken the person into custody and place them in a facility designated by the county and approved by the state as a facility for 72-hour treatment and evaluation when all the following conditions are met:

As a result of mental disorder, a person is A danger to others, or
A danger to self, or
Is gravely disabled

Gravely Disabled: A condition in which a person, as a result of mental disorder, is presently unable to provide for their basic personal needs for food, clothing and shelter.

II. WRITTEN APPLICATION REQUIRED

The facility shall require an application in writing stating the circumstances under which the person’s condition was called to the attention of the officer, which leads the officer to have probable cause to believe that the person meets the above-listed requirements. [W&I Code 5150]

III. AT THE SCENE/AT THE FACILITY

A. ASSESS FOR SAFETY

Once on scene, the officer needs to assess the area to make sure it is safe to enter.

B. CONDUCT EVALUATION

Once contact is made, the officer must evaluate the subject for a mental disorder before a 72-hour detention can be placed on the subject. Again, the officer must have probable cause to believe that the person is a danger to self, a danger to others, or is gravely disabled.

C. READ DETAINMENT ADVISEMENT TO SUBJECT

Whoever takes a subject into custody (under W&I 5150) shall provide the subject with the information contained in the attached Detainment Advisement section, which is on the upper right hand corner of the Application for 72-hour Detention for Evaluation and Treatment form (Form MH302- See Directory B, Web Resources for a copy of the form).

If the Detainment Advisement is not read, the officer must write in a good cause for an incomplete advisement. Examples of good cause includes: patient not conscious, patient not lucid, etc.
IV. TRANSPORT SUBJECT

If the subject falls within one of the listed categories, the officer can take the subject into custody and transport them to the designated facility for 72-hour treatment and evaluation. The designated facility in Santa Clara County is the Valley Medical Center-Emergency Psychiatric Services (VMC-EPS).

The officer must fill out the MH302 Form, Application for 72-hour Detention for Evaluation and Treatment. The application for a 72-hour detention form is used to document the circumstances surrounding the detention and commitment of any person deemed to be a danger to self, a danger to others, or gravely disabled as defined by Welfare and Institutions Code section 5150. This form is also used by Emergency Psychiatric Services (EPS) at Valley Medical Center (VMC) as a part of the person's medical file after commitment and must accompany the person to EPS or be completed there. A photocopy of this form should be attached to the actual police report form.
CONSERVATORSHIP

When someone is claiming to be a conservator to an elder or dependent adult, an attempt will be made to confirm the conservatorship by asking the following questions:

1. Who makes the decisions for the elder/dependent adult?
2. What documents do they have appointing them as the conservator? Obtain a copy of any related documents.
3. Confirm conservatorship by contacting either:
   a. Santa Clara County Superior Court Probate Investigations – 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, Monday thru Friday - (408) 882-2761
   b. On call Deputy Public Guardian or supervisor - (408) 577-2500
4. Check the Santa Clara County Superior Court website civil index under the parties' names at http://www.sccaseinfo.org/##.
SECTION SEVEN: PATROL OFFICER RESPONSE – NEGLECT, SELF-NEGLECT, ENDANGEMENT

PATROL OFFICER RESPONSE - NEGLECT, SELF-NEGLECT, ENDANGEMENT

I. GENERAL ISSUES WITH NEGLECT OR ENDANGEMENT

Neglect (including Self-Neglect) means the negligent failure of a caretaker or custodian, or the elder or dependent adult, to exercise the degree of care a reasonable person would have exercised in the same situation. Persons at risk for neglect include individuals who rely on others as a result of frailty, medical (recent or long-term), mental or physical disability.

Neglect includes the failure to provide medical care for physical and mental health needs; failure to protect from health and safety hazards; failure to provide necessities of life including food, clothing or shelter; and failure to prevent malnutrition or dehydration. Neglect can be acts and omissions on the part of the elder/dependent adult and/or caretaker.

It is common to observe a combination of indicators when neglect exists. Neglect may be found in varying degrees and may be recent or long-standing. Care should be taken to photograph and document evidence that will likely change with better care.

There also may be non-criminal influences (poverty, family background/culture, ignorance) that may contribute to the appearance of neglect which are consistent with normal living conditions of that person's family. The need for action should be guided by the likelihood of harm to the person if allowed to remain in those conditions.

II. COLLECTION OF EVIDENCE OF NEGLECT OR ENDANGEMENT

A. Document Physical Evidence

1. Photograph and/or video tape the elder/dependent adult and living conditions. Are there unsanitary or unsafe living conditions?

11. Is the elder/dependent adult a danger to self or others?
12. Does the elder/dependent adult exhibit symptoms of detachment, delusions, impaired judgment or dependency?

IV. MISSING PERSONS

Cases reviewed by the Elder Death Review Team have revealed that elder pedestrians killed by vehicles are too often “missing persons” whose caretakers either intentionally or unintentionally failed to give them the proper level of care. The EDRT therefore recommends that law enforcement do the following:

1. Report instances of “found” elders or dependent adults to Adult Protective Services;
2. Respond to the “found” person’s residence and determine:
   a. The identity of any caretaker;
   b. The circumstances of the elder/dependent adult leaving the residence;
   c. When and how the caretaker realized the elder/dependent adult was gone;
   d. The caretaker’s response to the elder/dependent adult being found;
   e. Whether there are provisions in place to ensure the situation will not recur;
3. Conduct a records check for any previous “missing persons” reports involving the same individuals;
4. Consider whether further investigation pursuant to Section 7, subsections II and III is warranted.

PATROL OFFICER RESPONSE - PHYSICAL ABUSE

I. GENERAL ISSUES WITH PHYSICAL ABUSE

Dependent adults and elderly persons may frequently exhibit signs of falls and accidents. These same signs may be indicators of physical abuse, especially when victims or suspects attempt to conceal their presence or offer inconsistent or irrational excuses for injuries. Investigators should consider the presence of any injury in their assessment of physical abuse cases.

A. A responding police officer should consider the following:

5. Does the victim need any medical services?
6. Provide for the well-being of the victim.
7. Can the victim recognize and communicate their most basic needs?
8. Gather evidence on which to base a successful prosecution of criminal behavior or indicates that there was no criminal act.
9. Determine if there is probable cause that an offense has been committed and make an arrest if appropriate.
10. Safety checks. Make sure that the home is reasonably cared for, no dangerous conditions in the home, food is provided and is not spoiled, and they have the necessary medical aids.
11. Determine if there is the presence or an available caretaker.

II. COLLECTION OF EVIDENCE OF PHYSICAL ABUSE

A. Bruises or welts

Older adults bruise more easily than younger people, and they are also at risk for a variety of injuries that lead to bruising. For this reason, it is often difficult to distinguish between bruises and other injuries that are accidental and those that were inflicted. There are, however, certain types of bruising or situations which may suggest abuse, including:

- Bilateral bruises are rarely accidental. These are bruises on both sides of the body - for example, on the top of both shoulders, both sides of the face or inside both thighs. Bilateral bruising to the arms may indicate that the older person has been shaken, grabbed or restrained. Bilateral bruising of the inner thighs may indicate rape or other types of sexual abuse.
- "Wrap around" bruises are also unlikely to be accidental. These are bruises which encircle the older person's arms, legs, or torso. They indicate that the older person has been physically restrained.
- The shape and location of bruising can tell a lot. Sometimes pattern marks are visible that resemble the instrument used to cause the bruising. Rope or strap marks, for example, may indicate inappropriate restraint.
B. Burns
   - Caused by cigarettes, caustics, hot objects.
   - Friction from ropes, chains or other physical restraints.

C. Other injuries or conditions
   - Fractures, sprains, lacerations, and abrasions.
   - Injuries caused by biting, cutting, poking, punching, whipping or twisting of limbs.
   - Disorientation, stupor or other effects of deliberate over-medication.
   - Dehydration or malnutrition without an illness related cause.

D. Obtain Statements
   - Interview all potential witnesses and get contact information.
   - Interview each witness (including victims) separately.
   - If complications or questions arise, contact the detective who investigates elder abuse.
   - Patrol officers are responsible for the basic interview.
   - Document demeanor and apparent ability to recollect.

E. Photographs
   - Photograph and/or video record all injuries and other evidence.
   - Use ABFO scales (American Board of Forensic Odontology scales).
   - Suspected crime scene.
   - Full view of victim(s) and all injuries.
   - Take photographs from several angles.
   - Living conditions.
   - One photograph of the victim's face for identification purposes.
   - Any bloody or stained items.
   - Any property damage.
   - The alleged abuser's injuries or lack of injuries. This is especially important in instances of potential self-defense.

F. Document Physical Evidence
   - Seize any object used to injure the victim (belt, shoe, cane).
   - Seize any object involved in the alleged accident (iron, coffee pot, restraints).
   - Take measurements pertinent to the suspected crime. (For example, measure the distance from the bed or couch to the floor where the victim allegedly fell).
   - Medications: Book sample as evidence if material to the case and document them in your report.
   - Alcoholic beverages and empty bottles, cans or other containers. May be necessary for abuse or neglect.
   - Items used to restrain, gag or torture a victim.
   - Letters, emails or any other form of communication between the victim and suspect that may be indicia of a crime.
   - Clothing, sheets, blankets and other items that may have feces, urine, blood or other stains.
• Financial documents.
• Diaries that discuss abuse.

G. Medical Information
• Medical history.
• Medical records if available.
• Substance abuse by the victim's caretaker?
• Interview of medical personnel available, e.g. ambulance, paramedics, or doctors.

III. BEHAVIORAL INDICATORS OF VICTIM OR CARETAKER
A. Behavioral Indicators - Suspect
• Gives conflicted stories; offers inconsistent or implausible explanations for the victim's injuries.
• Is reluctant to let the victim be interviewed alone.
• Speaks for the victim.
• Handles the victim roughly or in a manner that is threatening, manipulative, or insulting.
• Alcohol or Drug abuse.
• Previous history of abuse.
• Appears indifferent or angry towards the victim.
• Reluctant to, or fails to, assist or attend to the victim.

B. Behavioral Indicators - Victim
Indications of abuse are not limited to visible wounds or injuries. The behavior of victim can reflect traits often associated with elder/dependent adult abuse. Presence of these indicators is not conclusive and should serve only to direct the focus of further investigation.

• Easily frightened, agitated, or trembling.
• Exhibiting denial.
• Hesitant to talk openly.
• Implausible explanations concerning injuries. Often when victims have injuries related to abuse, they are explained as the result of accidents. By carefully assessing the type of injury and the explanation, it is possible to discover inconsistencies. For example, a bruise which is explained as the result of an accidental fall may be on a part of the body which is unlikely to sustain impact in a fall.
• Confusion or disorientation.
• Fear of speaking for oneself in the presence of caretaker.
• Shame, fear, embarrassment.
SECTION TEN: INVESTIGATIVE FOLLOW-UP - PHYSICAL ABUSE

INVESTIGATIVE FOLLOW-UP - PHYSICAL ABUSE

I. REVIEW THE INITIAL PATROL OFFICER RESPONSE

Ensure that Protocol Section Nine has been followed.

2. Ensure that the case has been cross-reported. (See Protocol Section Two, Subsection II on cross-reporting.)
3. Make contact with the assigned APS social worker, Ombudsman or the Department of Justice (DOJ) elder abuse investigator for the possibility of a joint investigation.
4. Verify that the preliminary investigation has addressed all elements of the reported crime.
5. Is there further evidence to gather?
6. Determine the need for further interviews and photographs.
7. Determine custody status of the suspect(s). Has the suspect been interviewed?
8. If there is an unidentified suspect, or the suspect is at large, make appropriate law enforcement notifications and all-points-bulletins; coordinate with other agencies.

IV. CORROBORATING INFORMATION

1. Determine if medical personnel saw the victim. Get a signed medical release for medical records. If the victim is conserved, get the conservator’s signed release.
2. If possible, obtain the names and contact information for all medical personnel who treated the victim both now and in the past including private doctors and hospitals.
3. Interview treating physician(s) regarding the incident and obtain their educational/medical background in relation to the abuse, if appropriate. See Appendix B on suggested interview of a treating physician or expert witness.

9. Medications: Obtain information regarding past and present medications taken by the elder, as well as the pharmacy from which they were obtained. This includes not only prescribed medications, but homeopathic and over the counter remedies as well.

V. SUSPECT INTERVIEW/INTERROGATION

An attempt should be made to interview all suspects. Interviews should be recorded, minimally on audio tape and optimally on video tape. The suspect should be interviewed by a detective or follow-up investigator, if available. (See Appendix A for suspect interview questions.)
PATROL OFFICER RESPONSE - FINANCIAL ABUSE

1. Interview all parties
   a. Record all statements! If that is not possible, try to quote the witness (particularly victim and suspect) whenever possible. Remember that the significance of some statements might not become apparent until later.
   b. Determine the identity and role of the reporting party - their relationship to the victim and any suspect, and the reporting party's motivation in reporting the crime.
   c. Interview the victim separately, away from the suspect(s). Remember that oftentimes the victim is emotionally, financially or otherwise dependent on the suspect and doesn't want anything bad to happen to the suspect. Keep in mind that the victim may be embarrassed or afraid to report the abuse to the police. Treat the victim in a delicate, compassionate way. (See Appendix B for specific questions for the victim.)
   d. Exercise patience in the interview. Remember that vulnerable victims may have difficulty responding quickly. Your efforts to hurry their responses may cause them to become less responsive and forgetful.
   e. Take some time to get to know the victim. Begin the interview with non-confrontational questions such as general questions about their background. Use that time to assess their comprehension level.
   f. Avoid leading questions. Let the victim explain their answers using their own words. Ask the victim to explain in as much detail as possible their understanding of the financial transactions in question and the reason the transaction(s) was/were made.
   g. Assure the victim that your primary concern is their welfare.
   h. Take detailed notes but do not form or articulate in your written report or notes any determination regarding the victim's mental capacity.
   i. Obtain sample signature of the victim.
   j. If complications or questions arise, contact an elder/dependent adult fraud detective.
   k. If the case involves the threat of continuing or imminent loss, or the threat of eviction or foreclosure, notify the APS worker or Ombudsman that the case should be referred to the Santa Clara County FAST team (Financial Abuse Specialist Team) by notifying APS.

NOTE: If a decision is made to arrest the suspect prior to the District Attorney's Office issuing a complaint, call the on-duty judge to have him or her set higher bail pursuant to PC 1269(c).
2. Details in report
   a. Determine dates of loss, how and when the loss was discovered and who discovered the loss.
      i. Document the victim’s reaction to the loss, i.e. tears, disbelief, shaking, etc.
      ii. Document who told the victim about the loss, how and when.
   b. Determine when and where to re-contact victim(s) and witness(es).
   c. Describe the relationship between the victim(s) and suspect(s).
   d. Identify all witnesses who may have relevant information.
   e. Interview the suspect separately.
      i. Confirm method and amount of payment, scope of duties, gifts/loans from victim to suspect.
      ii. See Appendix A for specific questions for the suspect.
      iii. If the suspect resides with the victim, confirm whether the suspect pays rent to the victim, or whether the suspect free room and board in exchange for services provided to the victim.

3. Physical Evidence
   a. Obtain written victim authorization to request bank records, credit card statements, real estate loan documents and other relevant financial information.
   b. Collect any available and relevant documentary evidence including but not limited to the following:
      1. Documents related to money: bank statements, check registers, canceled checks, credit card statements, wills, trust, and Power of Attorney, deeds, promissory notes, stock certificates, brokerage account statements, and tax returns.
      2. Documents related to schedules and appointments: day planner, notes, monthly calendar, and anything else the victim uses to track their schedule.

      c. Is the victim represented by a civil attorney?
   2. Ensure that the case has been cross-reported. (See Protocol Section Two, Subsection II on cross-reporting.)

B. Case Review
   1. If the case is being investigated jointly with another agency, continue ongoing communication with that other agency to assure effective collaboration and efficient use of resources. If another agency is not co-investigating the case, determine whether a joint investigation is appropriate.
   2. Verify that the preliminary investigation has addressed all elements of the reported crime.
   3. Determine the need for further interviews and collection of physical evidence. Try to locate neighbors, friends and relatives of the victim with relevant information regarding the victim’s spending habits and mental capacity.
      a. Obtain factual descriptions that reflect changes in victim’s mental state.
         i. Observations of the victim, e.g. forgetting when they last wrote a check or their neighbor’s name.
   4. Determine custody status of the suspect(s).
      a. If in custody/arraigned, is there a no contact order for victim?

   a. Consent.
   b. Probation/parole.
   c. Exigency/emergency.
   d. Search Warrants:
      i. Financial records of victim and/or suspect
      ii. Homes and offices
   e. Criminal history data (local, state, national) of suspect.
   f. Credit report on victim to see whether suspect has applied for credit in the victim's name.
   g. Title searches. If the victim owns real property, check with the County Recorder's office to identify any encumbrances on the property and to determine how title is held.
   h. Call victim's medical provider.
   i. Statements of witnesses: Neighbors, bankers, loan officers, and real estate agents, family members, doctors.
IV. SUSPECT INTERVIEW/INTERROGATION

An attempt should be made to interview all suspects. Interviews should be recorded, minimally on audio tape and ideally on video tape. The suspect should be interviewed by a detective or follow-up investigator, if available. All statements, including spontaneous statements, shall be made part of the offense report. See Appendix A for specific questions for the suspect.

1. Often, the suspect will be an excellent source for information regarding victim’s mental state. Suspect will describe to you how much they have done to help the victim because the victim cannot take care of self.

2. Obtain Handwriting examples – have suspect sign their name as well as the victim’s name.

3. Describe/determine suspect’s access to victim’s financial information.

4. Determine prior work history for the suspect (prior consistent behavior, criminal history or both).

V. ADDITIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

1. Consider the use of a press release in order to locate other victims.

2. For cases involving a suspect who holds a license with the Department of Health Services, notification must be made to the California Department of Health Services.

3. Meet with the Deputy District Attorney.
   a. As the investigation progresses and/or when seeking a complaint.

4. When you are ready to obtain complaint:
   a. Provide ALL financial records to the Deputy District Attorney.

   c. Copies of all search warrants, evidence lists and any due diligence.

5. Ensure arrest warrants are served.

VI. FAST

The Santa Clara County Financial Abuse Specialist Team (FAST) was formed in 1999, and is composed of members from Adult Protective Services, the Office of the Public Guardian, the Office of the District Attorney and the office of County Counsel. The mission of the FAST team is to identify, investigate, prevent, and remedy financial abuse of elders and dependent adults in Santa Clara County. Rapid response, team confidentiality, and a multi-disciplinary approach are key components of the team. financial abuse is accomplished. For further information, see the FAST Practice Guide located on the Santa Clara County Social Services Web Site: www.sccgov.org/aps or call APS: 408-975-4900.
A. Indicators of Sexual Abuse

Physical indicators of sexual elder abuse should direct investigators to search for other corroborating evidence. Many of these indicators cannot be identified without physical examination. Indicators may include the following:

- Torn, stained or bloody underclothing.
- Genital and/or anal infection, irritation, discharges or bleeding, itching, bruising or pain.
- Painful urination and/or defecation.
- Difficulty walking or sitting due to anal or genital pain.
- Psychosomatic pain such as stomach or headaches.
- Physical evidence of pornography or prostitution.
- Sexually transmitted disease.

B. Behavioral Indicators - The Victim

The embarrassment of recounting forced sexual activity often results in the refusal of an elderly victim to report and describe the crime. The following indicators are often present in (but not limited to) cases of sexual abuse:

- Inappropriate, unusual or aggressive behavior or curiosity about sexual matters.
- Self-exposure.
- Intense fear reaction to an individual or people in general.
- Extreme upset when assisted with bathing or other physical caregiving.
- Direct or coded disclosure of sexual abuse.
- Fecal soiling.
- Depression or poor self-esteem.
- Eating disturbances (overeating and under-eating).
- Tears, phobias, compulsive behavior.
- Self-destructive behaviors such as head-banging or self-biting.
- Regressive behavior such as bedwetting or thumb sucking.
- Sleep disorders (nightmares, fear of sleep, excessive sleeping).

C. Behavioral Indicators - The Suspect

An individual who is sexually abusing or exploiting an elderly person may take extreme measures to ensure the activity is concealed. This may be exhibited through such behaviors as the following:

- Over protectiveness, dominance, hostility toward others.
- Inappropriate sex-role relationship between victim and suspect.
- Social isolation.
II. CONTACT WITH VICTIM

The initial interview should be limited to establishing corpus of the offense. Santa Clara County’s policy is to minimize the number of interviews of the victim, and a specially trained detective should conduct the detailed follow-up interview.

The patrol officer should consider the following:

1. Use a comfortable room or location. Officers should make every effort to put the victim at ease. In some cases involving a dependent adult the officer may need to establish that the victim understands the difference between the truth and a lie, time and spatial concepts, etc. The suspect(s) shall not be present. Non-suspect relatives/conservators/caretakers should not be present in the immediate area. If they are, they should be out of visual range of the victim.

2. It is important to establish only the basic information of the allegation.

3. Determine the nature of sexual abuse allegations (oral/genital, digital/genital, etc.).

4. Determine JURISDICTION, TIME(s) and DATE(s) of offenses.

5. Determine SUSPECT(s) involved and the relationship to the victim
   a. If a suspect is a stranger, obtain the best possible description of suspect and vehicle. Immediately broadcast a Be on the Lookout (BOL). Immediately canvass the area, noting all license plates. Notify investigative personnel on details of offense and solicit their input.

6. Crime scene: Prior to proceeding with evidence collection, determine if there is a need for a search warrant. A conservator may give consent if the elder/dependent adult has an assigned conservator.

7. Evidence collection:
   a. If in a residence or long-term care facility, secure, process and store any items of evidentiary value. Collect and bag separately items such as bedding, tissues and clothing. Look for items such as photographs, pornography or letters from suspect to victim, etc.
   b. If in a vehicle, impound and seal it unless there is time-critical evidence that will lead to capture (exterior fingerprints, indicia, etc.). Leave processing for follow-up investigators.
   c. If outdoors, secure the area. Proceed in sequential search pattern. Photograph evidence prior to collection with scale device and draw a sketch.
8. Photograph and when possible videotape the crime scene. Photograph any visible victim injuries. Photograph suspect's injuries and suspect's appearance. If possible, photograph all parties involved.
   a. Coordinate with Medical/SART staff and ensure that all victim injuries are photographed for evidentiary purposes.

9. Other Interview Factors:
   • Care should be taken to determine if there are additional victims.
   • Determine if there are additional outstanding suspects and what their relationship is to the victim.
   • If there are multiple victims, consult with investigators to ensure that they are aware of the potential from multi-disciplinary interviews.
   • If the victim(s) are developmentally disabled, identify their caretaker(s) and with which care program they are associated.
   • Identify any other potential witnesses or persons to whom the victim may have made disclosures.
   • All attempts should be made to video and audio record all interviews.

III. SEXUAL ABUSE EVIDENCE (SART EXAMINATION)

1. During all hours: Obtain check for sexual assault exam, as required by your department policy. Notify APS or OMB. Prior to leaving for Valley Medical Center, contact should be made with the on-duty Sexual Assault Response Team (SART) nurse to discuss the case. The victim should then be transported to the Valley Medical Center (VMC) Emergency Room where you will meet with the examiner and crisis counselor. If the sexual abuse occurred more than 72 hours earlier, follow-up investigators should determine the necessity of the SART examination.

2. Take custody of sexual assault evidence, reports, etc., and handle as biological evidence. Store appropriately.

3. There will be no sexual assault exam if the victim refuses cooperation and otherwise appears competent to give or refuse to give informed consent.

4. If the victim does not appear competent to give or refuse informed consent and does have a conservator, successor trustee or a valid Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care, consent should be obtained from the victim's conservator or Attorney in Fact for Health Care. APS should be contacted immediately.
5. If the victim does not appear competent to give or refuse informed consent and does not have a conservator or Attorney in Fact for Health Care, an emergency Court Order or search warrant should be obtained. APS should be contacted immediately.

6. If the victim’s conservator or Attorney in Fact for Health Care is a suspect, an emergency Court Order or search warrant should be obtained. APS should be contacted immediately.

V. SUSPECT

A. In-custody; follow-up detective available:
   When taking the suspect into custody, the patrol officer should avoid obtaining a statement or reading Miranda rights. The interview of the suspect and Miranda are the responsibility of the follow-up detective. Any spontaneous admissions shall be recorded in the crime report. The follow-up detective should be notified and made aware of the need to conduct an interview with a Miranda waiver. Standard rape kit evidence shall be collected if appropriate.

B. In-custody; misdemeanor cases or no follow-up detective available:
   The goal in all cases is to obtain a Post-Mirandized statement from the suspect(s). In the case of an in-custody (or cite and release) misdemeanor, the patrol officer should try to obtain this statement. When in doubt as to how to proceed, consult a supervisor.

C. Out-of-custody:
   Every attempt should be made to identify the suspect, suspect's residence, workplace, vehicles, associates, etc. Determine if the suspect is a PC 290 registrant or on probation/parole. Consult with investigators prior to taking the suspect into custody.

A victim of a violation of PC 261, 261.5, 262, 286, 288a, or 289 has the right to have victim advocates and a support person of the victim's choosing present at any interview by law enforcement authorities, district attorneys, or defense attorneys, unless law enforcement determines the presence of that person would be detrimental to the purpose of the interview. A victim shall be notified of this right orally or in writing prior to the commencement of the interview. (PC §§ 679.04, 264.2).
INVESTIGATIVE FOLLOW-UP - SEXUAL ABUSE

I. REVIEW THE INITIAL PATROL OFFICER RESPONSE

Ensure that Protocol Section Thirteen has been completed.

II. INITIAL CASE REVIEW AND ASSESSMENT

1. Determine the level of risk of ongoing harm to the victim.
   a. Is the suspect still in the victim’s residence?
   b. Does the suspect still have access to the victim?
2. Ensure that the case has been cross-reported. (See Protocol Section Two, Subsection II on cross-reporting.)
3. Verify that the preliminary investigation has addressed all elements of the reported crime.
4. Determine the need for further interviews, photographs, and collection of physical evidence. Try to locate neighbors, friends and relatives of the victim with relevant information regarding the victim.
5. Determine custody status of the suspect and determine if they have been interviewed.
6. Interview suspect if suspect has not been previously interviewed or if additional questions are appropriate.
7. If there is an unidentified suspect or the suspect is at large, make the appropriate law enforcement notifications and all-points bulletin.
8. Coordinate with other agencies, including Adult Protective Services, Public Guardian, Ombudsman and Department of Justice, as necessary.

A. Additional Investigative Resources

1. Criminal history data (local, state, national)
2. DOJ’s Serious Habitual Offender Program (SHOP) and P.C. 290 (registrants) files
3. Department of Motor Vehicles
4. Court records

B. Corroborating Information

1. Videotape of victim’s statement (as soon as possible):
   a. Do not prompt victim.
   b. Videotape victim away from all other witnesses such as family members, caretakers, friends or relatives.
   c. Review the tape to ensure clarity.

C. Documentary evidence:

1. Review physical evidence collected from the scene to supplement photograph.
   a. Sexual Assault Response Team (SART) exam evidence.

D. Searches:

1. Consent of residence or area where assault occurred.
2. Probation or Parole search area under suspect’s control for evidence of the crime.
3. Search warrant (absent consent).
E. Determine suspect's access to victim at the time of the reported offense.

F. Statements of any witnesses (audio or videotaped, if possible).

G. Evidence:

1. Biological (e.g. semen, saliva, blood, hair).
2. Medical Records.
3. Pretext recorded conversations. When appropriate, it is strongly recommended that the pretext recorded conversation occur prior to any suspect interview. Detailed information regarding the suspect's statements, reactions, and/or silence during the pretext recorded conversation should be included in the offense report.
4. Photographs.
5. Photo Line-ups.
6. Trace evidence (e.g., fibers).
7. 911 tape(s).

III. SUSPECT INTERVIEW/INTERROGATION

An attempt should be made to interview all suspects. Interviews should be recorded, minimally on audio tape and ideally on video tape. The suspect should be interviewed by a detective or follow-up investigator, if available. All statements, including spontaneous statements, shall be made part of the offense report.
SECTION FIFTEEN: PATROL OFFICER RESPONSE – SUSPICIOUS DEATH/HOMICIDE

PATROL OFFICER RESPONSE - SUSPICIOUS DEATH/HOMICIDE

I. INITIAL RESPONSE

A. Follow standard first aid protocol; preservation of life is the first priority.

B. Administer first aid and call the Fire Department and paramedics, unless there are obvious signs of death, such as post-mortem lividity, rigor mortis or putrefaction.

C. Make mental notes of the scene, particularly things which will change in time, such as condition of the victim (body temperature, pallor), appearance of the scene, any medications, temperature of residence, thermostat settings, and canvassing of neighborhood.

D. Continue with the investigative steps listed in the following sections after relinquishing responsibility for the victim’s care to fire personnel or paramedics.

II. ELDER/DEPENDENT ADULT DEATH PROCEDURES

Any unexplained or suspicious elder or dependent adult death should be treated as a homicide until a complete investigation, including autopsy, has been performed.

A. Promptly take necessary steps to secure and control the immediate death scene (the location where the victim was first discovered unresponsive); preserve all items of evidence which may assist in determining the cause of death. Document all people (including emergency personnel) who have entered or left the crime scene.

B. Identify and record the names of all persons who may be involved in the incident.

C. Make appropriate field notes which will serve as preparation for the required reports documenting the circumstances of the incident from the time the victim was last seen alive through discovery and revival efforts.

D. If the agency has an available detective response, notification should be made immediately.

E. The on-call homicide Deputy District Attorney should be contacted immediately. (Call County Communications at (408) 299-2501 and ask to be put in contact with for the on-call homicide DDA.)

F. Obtain an initial statement from the victim’s most recent conservator or caretaker, concerning the circumstances of the victim’s death. If there is more than one caretaker, interview them separately and as soon as possible.

G. Obtain initial statement from RP or person who found/discovered the victim’s body.

H. Interview person who last saw the victim alive.
III. NO IMMEDIATE DETECTIVE RESPONSE

A. Define and secure the area where the victim was discovered, as well as any other area that may contain evidence of the cause of death. Contact the Medical Examiner-Coroner's Office prior to removing or manipulating the body. Whenever possible, crime scene personnel of the department or the Santa Clara County Crime Lab should refrain from seizing or moving evidence before the ME/C has had an opportunity to view the scene and collect evidence necessary for their work.

B. Obtain information concerning the victim:
   1. Name, date of birth, sex, race.
   2. Physical appearance and condition.
   3. Name, address, phone number of conservator or caretakers.
   4. Medical history, including prior injuries and accidents, pre-existing medical conditions, and a signed medical release from a conservator or caretakers wherever possible.
   5. Description of the resuscitation attempts, including the name of the person who attempted the resuscitation or who pronounced death.

C. Obtain the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of possible witnesses or other persons who may be able to furnish information concerning this incident.

D. Canvass the neighborhood.

E. Conduct a walk-through of the immediate and surrounding areas where the victim was discovered in order to:
   1. Visualize what the area may have looked like before the incident took place.
   2. Identify potential evidence which may assist in determining the cause of death.
   3. Note medications type & quantity. Coordinate with the Medical Examiner / Coroner.
   4. Diagram plain view and photograph the immediate and surrounding areas where the victim was first discovered and any other location where the victim was known to be prior to death.
IV. END OF LIFE OPTION ACT

Effective June 9, 2017, the End of Life Option Act (codified in Health and Safety Code section 443 et. seq.) authorizes an adult who meets certain qualifications, and who has been determined by their attending physician to be suffering from a terminal disease, as defined, to make a request for a drug prescribed pursuant to the provisions of the Act, for the purpose of ending their life. The Act is very specific regarding the steps that the patient must follow and the steps the attending physician must follow. The Act creates two new felonies: PC 443.17(a) for altering or forging a request for the drug or concealing or destroying a withdrawal of a request for the drug, both with intent or effect of causing death; and PC 443.17(b) for coercing a person to ingest the drug or destroying without consent a withdrawal of a request for the drug, both with intent or effect of causing death. If the responding officer confronts evidence to suggest that the Act was followed or intended to be followed:

1. Contact the on-call homicide DDA even if the situation confronting responding officers suggests that the death occurred pursuant to the Act.

2. Do not take anyone into custody. Determining whether the Act was appropriately followed will require a full investigation and review of the deceased person’s medical history which will take time and would likely necessitate the release of anyone taken into custody.

3. Contact the attending physician if possible so that they can certify the death. Refrain from contacting the Medical Examiner / Coroner unless and until efforts to contact the attending physician have been exhausted or deemed impossible. True “End of Life Option Act” deaths are not ME/C cases, and the ME/C does not wish to take jurisdiction in such cases. If the ME/C takes jurisdiction in a case where an individual voluntarily ended their own life, the ME/C must deem the cause of death to be suicide, which in some cases will contravene the intentions of the deceased. In other words, in instances where the attending physician cannot be located and the ME/C takes legal custody of the body, the ability to have the underlying disease (as opposed to “suicide”) listed as the cause of death may be compromised.

I. If the victim has been scalded, document the water temperature immediately when it comes out of the spigot. Also measure the highest temperature the water reaches out of the tap.

   7. Secure 911 tape(s).
   8. Obtain phone records of the victim.
   9. Have the suspect reenact the event; measure all relevant distances; video tape if possible.

L. Avoid a premature arrest:

SECTION EIGHTEEN: PROTECTIVE ORDERS

PROTECTIVE ORDERS

I. INTRODUCTION

Restrainting orders are available to anyone who has been harassed, physically abused, or had their health and safety endangered by another. There are several types of protective orders including:

A. Emergency Protective Restraining Order (EPRO)
An Emergency Protective Restraining Order (EPRO) is issued by a Duty Judge at any time, whether or not court is in session. It is intended to function as a short-term temporary restraining order if a person is in immediate and present danger of abuse or neglect and is requested by a police officer in urgent circumstances. The EPRO is authorized by a Duty Judge after receiving a telephonic application from the requesting officer. An EPRO is valid for five court days or seven calendar days, providing the protected person sufficient time to obtain a Temporary Restraining Order. The issuance of an EPRO is not precluded by an arrest.

B. Temporary Restraining Order (TRO)
A Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) is obtained in civil court by a protected person upon submission of an application, including an affidavit explaining the need for the order. A TRO is valid for a limited period of time, usually about a month, until a court hearing is conducted to receive testimony from both the restrained and protected persons. A protected person may receive assistance from a victim advocacy agency in applying for a TRO.

C. Order After Hearing
An Order After Hearing is issued by a civil court judge and requires a person to refrain from doing a particular act or acts. If no time period is noted, these orders remain in effect for three (3) to five (5) years and may be extended beyond the five years upon request of the protected person.

D. Criminal Protective Order (CPO)
A Criminal Protective Order is a restraining order issued in a criminal case pursuant to PC 136.2 where there is a likelihood of harassment of the victim by the defendant. CPOs are issued and remain in force while prosecution is pending, and will be re-issued at the time of sentencing. Orders are typically issued to run concurrently with the period of probation. However, in cases involving domestic violence and sexual assault, and in cases where the victim and suspect are related within two degrees of consanguinity, the order may remain in effect for up to 10 years after sentencing, regardless of whether probation is granted or denied.

II. OBTAINING EMERGENCY PROTECTIVE ORDERS

A. Emergency Protective Restraining Orders (EPRO) are available to persons who are or have been victims of domestic violence, child abuse, child abduction, elder or dependent adult abuse, or stalking (including workplace violence or civil harassment) and provide supporting court and law enforcement processes.
B. When responding to any elder abuse or domestic violence incident, an officer shall advise the victim of the availability of an Emergency Protective Restraining Order (EPRO) in every case.

1. In arrest situations, the following procedures should be implemented:
   a. When a person is arrested based upon an allegation of a recent incident of abuse or threat of abuse or in danger of stalking, and the officer can assert reasonable grounds to believe that a person is in immediate and present danger of domestic violence or elder abuse, which would require restraint if the defendant were to be released from custody (e.g., bail, OR, 849, or no PC found), then the police officer shall be required to explain the EPRO to the victim and ascertain if the victim desires one. Where the officer fears for the safety of the victim, but the victim does not desire an EPRO, an investigating officer shall request one on behalf of the victim. (Family Code 6275). The officer shall advise the victim that an EPRO has been issued. Every effort should be made to provide the victim with a copy of the EPRO at the earliest opportunity.

b. If an EPRO is appropriate, the application should be completed. The officer should note on the application whether or not the suspect has been arrested, or will be arrested when located. During normal court hours, the police officer should call the Family Court at (408) 534-5601 and ask to speak to a judge available to process an EPRO. After 5 PM on weekdays, on weekends, and holidays, the police officer should call County Communications at (408) 299-2501 and ask for the Duty Judge to call back. The police officer should leave the phone number where they can be reached. Officers should ensure that the telephone equipment is operational before requesting that the Duty Judge utilize that number. If the Duty Judge is not available, the officer should ask to speak to another Judge.

Note: The Duty Judge may elect to call County Communications at 408 299-2501 and request that the phone call be transferred to the number where the officer is located. This will protect the privacy of the Duty Judge's home phone number if the Duty Judge is calling into a private residence.
2. In a non-arrest situation where an EPRO is desired, the officer should complete an application then contact the Duty Judge or Family Court for evaluation and issuance of the EPRO.

3. If issued, EPRO legislation requires an officer to make a reasonable attempt to serve the restrained party. If they are present or can be readily contacted, serve the order and complete the Proof of Service on the form. Document whether and how the order was served in the police report. Persons subject to RO's are required to turn over all firearms when told to do so by law enforcement. Refer to Firearms Relinquishment Protocol if necessary. Copies of the EPRO should be distributed as follows:

```
Original   ➔  Court
Yellow     ➔  Restrained Person
Pink       ➔  Protected Person
Goldenrod  ➔  Law Enforcement Agency
```

4. Once an EPRO is issued, it is the responsibility of the police agency to promptly file the EPRO with the Family Justice Center Courthouse at 201 North First Street, San Jose CA 95113.

5. A judicial officer may also issue an EPRO if a peace officer asserts reasonable grounds to believe that a person is stalking another person as defined in PC 646.9 (authority PC 646.91).

6. Upon requesting an EPRO the officer should immediately contact the Adult Protective Services.

III. ENFORCEMENT OF RESTRAINING ORDERS

When an incident involves an alleged violation of a restraining order assigned officers will adhere to the following procedure:

A. Verify the Order.
   1. Check that the order is on file with the Sheriff’s Office and Police Department, or that the complainant has a copy of the order in her or his possession.
   2. Ensure the judge signed the order and there is a court stamp or seal.
   3. Check that the order is still valid in duration and time.
   4. Determine if there is proof of service or prior notice to the subject, or if the subject was in court when the order was made.
SECTION EIGHTEEN: PROTECTIVE ORDERS

5. Determine the terms of the restraining order.
6. If the subject has left the scene, prepare a case report. Tell the complainant the case number and advise on follow-up criminal procedure.
7. If the officer cannot verify the subject was served or had prior knowledge restraining order, or if service is made upon a party at the scene or while in custody then:
   a. Inform the subject of the terms of order;
   b. Admonish the subject that a subsequent violation of the order will result in arrest. If, after admonishment, the subject does not conform to the order, make an arrest.
   c. Supplement with Department copy of the order with a report that the subject was admonished.
   d. Verify a court restraining order when the complainant states that one exists.
8. If the officer cannot verify the order, it may be enforced through a private person's arrest procedure. If it is the officer's opinion that the elements of the crime do not exist, the officer may then consider a release per Penal Code Section 849(b).

B. Warrantless Arrests Allowed. Officers shall make arrests for any violation of a restraining orders issued under CCP 527.6, PC 136.2, 646.91, 1203.097, or WI 213.5 whether or not they occur in the officer's presence, so long as probable cause exists to believe a violation occurred. (PC 836(c)(1), PC 13701)

C. Verbal Notice of Order Allowed. Verbal notice by the officer of the terms of the order is sufficient. However, in order to successfully prosecute a later violation of the order, the officer who delivered verbal notification must be able to testify that the subject notified was positively identified as the restrained person (FC 6383(e)). Within one business day of service, the law enforcement agency serving the protective order shall enter the proof of service directly into the DOJ Domestic Violence Restraining Order System (DVROS), including the officer's name and employing agency and shall transmit the original proof of service to the issuing court (FC 6380(d)). Once the order is served, an arrest may be made if the suspect refuses to comply with the terms of the order.

D. Suspect Not Present. If a Restraining Order violation has occurred and the suspect is not present, the officer will submit a crime report of the appropriate violation and the officer will attempt to locate the suspect and arrest pursuant to Section 836(c) PC. Under NO CIRCUMSTANCES shall an officer fail to prepare a crime report on a restraining order violation simply because the suspect is no longer present.

E. Multiple Restraining Orders in Effect. When multiple restraining orders exist involving the same protected person and the same restrained person, the order that is most restrictive takes precedence. If there is a criminal order and a civil order, equally restrictive, enforce the criminal order. (Non-conflicting terms of the civil order remain in effect.) If there are multiple, equally restrictive civil orders, enforce the most recent order.

F. Out of State Orders. Officers shall enforce out-of-state protective or restraining orders that are presented to them if conditions below are met. "Out-of-state" orders include those issued by U.S. Territories, Indian tribes, and military agencies.

1. The order appears valid on its face.
2. The order contains both parties' names.
SECTION EIGHTEEN: PROTECTIVE ORDERS

3. The order has not yet expired (Full Faith and Credit Provision of the Violence Against Women Act, Family Code 6400-6409).

Officers should check CLETS to determine if the order has been registered in California. If the order is not registered, an attempt should be made to contact the foreign jurisdiction or its registry for confirmation of validity.

If validation cannot be substantiated, contact the Duty Judge for an EPRO, but the out-of-state protective or restraining order must still be enforced if it meets the above criteria. If not registered in California parties should be advised to immediately register the order through the Family Court.

G. Encouraged Violation of Restraining Orders. Occasionally, officers may encounter a situation wherein a protected party has encouraged or invited a restrained party to violate the terms of an order by initiating contact. Officers should remember that the order remains in effect until canceled by the court, and that the restrained party is the only person in violation of the order in such a situation.

H. Firearms. When an officer verifies that a restraining order has been issued, the officer shall make reasonable efforts to determine if the restraining order prohibits the possession of firearms and/or requires the relinquishment of firearms. If the order prohibits firearms possession, the officer will make reasonable efforts to:

1. Inquire of the restrained person, if present or contacted during the investigation, if they possess firearms.

2. Inquire through the CLETS, and the Consolidated Firearms System (CFS) to determine if any firearms are registered to the restrained person.

3. Inquire of the protected person whether the restrained person possesses any firearms.

4. Receive or seize prohibited firearms located in plain view or pursuant to a consensual or other lawful search.

5. Law enforcement is authorized to request the immediately surrender of firearms when a person is served with a domestic violence protective order, rather than having to wait 24 hours for the person to self-surrender the firearms.

6. If a restraining order prohibits firearms possession, the officer shall make record in the crime or incident report of:
   i. Inquiries made to determine if the restrained person possesses any firearms.
   ii. The results of efforts made to locate and seize any unlawfully possessed firearms.

7. All law enforcement agencies shall have the responsibility of receiving and storing firearms surrendered pursuant to a restraining order for residents in their jurisdiction.

8. Each county law enforcement agency having responsibility for the investigation of domestic violence shall adopt policies and procedures addressing the receipt, storage and release of firearms surrendered or seized pursuant to a restraining order.

C. Department of Justice: Bureau of Medi-Cal Fraud & Elder Abuse (BMFEA)

1. Scope of Authority: BMFEA is a unit within the California Department of Justice, Attorney General’s office. It has concurrent statutory authority with local agencies for the investigation and prosecution of crimes against elders and dependent adults in government funded healthcare facilities. It maintains a dedicated unit called the Elder Abuse Prosecution Unit (EAPU) which is comprised of investigators (Special Agents), Investigative Auditors and prosecutors (Deputy Attorney Generals). It is divided into three sub-units:

a. Violent Crimes Unit (VCU) which investigates crimes of violence including homicides, sexual assaults, rapes, batteries and neglect as well as fiduciary crimes committed against persons within facilities. Most of these offenses are referred to local prosecutors. The VCU maintains a rapid response program in which agents are on call and able to respond to any crime scene 24 hours a day/7 days a week.

b. Facilities Enforcement Team (FET) which investigates and prosecutes both criminal and civil actions against facilities when they are determined to be responsible for the neglect or abuse of patients and residents.

c. Operation Guardians consists of BMFEA staff and local agencies working as task forces which conduct surprise onsite inspections of healthcare facilities. Each Operation Guardians team member inspects the selected facility for noncompliance and/or violations of state and/or federal laws and regulations for which they are statutorily responsible. Each team member either has independent statutory authority to conduct onsite inspections without court-issued orders or plays a critical support/response role providing expertise, background data or prosecution of crimes discovered during the inspection.

2. Services Provided: BMFEA will accept referrals from, as well as, assist other law enforcement, prosecuting agencies and other agencies with such cases. Assistance includes personnel (agent, investigative auditor, and attorney) and equipment as appropriate.

3. Tracking of Cases: BMFEA maintains a computer tracking system of reported abuse and neglect cases occurring in healthcare facilities; includes information on the facilities and persons involved in the offenses as well as case status and dispositions. Reports are accepted from any sources, but are primarily from law enforcement, the Department of Health Services Licensing and Certification and Ombudsman programs.
SECTION NINETEEN: RESOURCES AND SERVICES

4. Training: Per mandate by state and federal law BMFEA provides training to law enforcement, prosecuting agencies, and other state and local agencies regarding the investigation and prosecution of elder and dependent adult abuse and neglect.

D. Adult Protective Services

1. Program Overview. Each California County is mandated to have an Adult Protective Services (APS) agency to investigate abuse and neglect of elder adults (65 years and older) and dependent adults (18-64 who are disabled and are unable to advocate for themselves.) APS receives reports of abuse and conducts investigations of elders and dependent adults who live in private homes, apartments or hotels.

Many professions who work with elders or dependent adults, including law enforcement are mandated reporters under state law, and are required to report suspected abuse or neglect. Please see Welfare and Institution Code Section 15630.

Mandated reporters are required to report suspected abuse or neglect by phone as soon as possible and follow up with a completed written report on the State of California form 341 (SOC 341) within two days. Failure to report abuse of an elder or dependent adult is a misdemeanor, punishable by not more than six months in the county jail or by a fine of not more than $1,000, or both imprisonment and fine. Any mandated reporter who willfully fails to report abuse where the abuse results in death or great bodily injury, may be punished by up to one year in county jail, a fine of up to $5,000, or both imprisonment and fine.

As of January 2017, the APS 24/7 Abuse Report hotline prioritizes Law Enforcement calls and there is a specialized number for Law Enforcement calls only: 408-975-4800.

Law Enforcement can also call the main APS 24/7 Abuse Report hotline: 408-975-4900 and select option 1 for priority.

APS social workers can be contacted for urgent elder and dependent adult abuse case coordination after business hours.

California Welfare and Institutions Code governs the reporting and investigation of elder and dependent adult abuse. Under this law, the County’s APS is charged with the responsibility of recording and evaluating reports of abuse as they are received from the community. The law gives APS the responsibility for investigating all abuse that takes place outside of licensed long-term care facilities and specifies that APS cross report to law enforcement agencies whenever cases of suspected criminal activity are reported to APS. Similarly, law enforcement agencies cross report such cases to APS and there is interagency coordination between law enforcement and APS in the investigation of reports.

Services:

When a report of abuse or neglect is received, APS’s goal is to create a stable environment where the individual can safely function without requiring on-going intervention from the APS program. Services provided by APS include responding to reports of known or suspected abuse or neglect, conducting an investigation, and arranging for the delivery of services from available community agencies.
The APS program is not intended to provide long-term, on-going case management services. However, APS offers appropriate services in accordance with individual needs and acceptance. APS is not intended to interfere with the life style choices of elders or dependent adults, or to protect those individuals from the consequences of their choices. For this reason, an elder or dependent adult who has been abused may refuse or withdraw consent at any time to preventive and remedial services offered by APS.

However, APS is required to conduct an investigation when there is an allegation that a crime has been committed, regardless of whether the elder or dependent adult wants the investigation to go forward or not.

APS abuse investigations focus on:

- physical, cognitive, psychological, functional and socio-economic status;
- living environment;
- support systems and strengths;
- risk for ongoing abuse/neglect and safety assessment;
- developing a service plan which may include arranging for emergency services, emergency shelter or medical care.

APS social workers may provide referrals or linkage to community services, benefits, advocacy and medical professionals. They also may arrange for direct services such as Meals on Wheels, and transportation. APS Social Workers also coordinate with family, friends and other professionals involved with the elder or dependent adults to meet their needs. APS may request assistance from law enforcement for welfare checks and/or criminal investigations.

APS can provide tangible support services to victims of abuse. This might include funds for temporary emergency food, shelter, and clothing.

E. Public Administrator/Guardian/Conservator: Department of Aging and Adult Services
Office of the Public Administrator/Guardian/Conservator:

1. Program Overview: The Divisions of the Public Administrator/Guardian/Conservator (PA/G/C) are part of the Department of Aging and Adult Services of Santa Clara County’s Social Services Agency. Typically, the Public Guardian is responsible for those clients under court ordered probate conservatorship; the Public Conservator is responsible for those persons under a mental health conservatorship; and the Public Administrator is responsible for administering decedent estates in the event that there is no other capable legal party to do so. Each of the three administrators are appointed by and accountable to the Superior Court of Santa Clara County to provide a broad range of services to those people who are mentally and/or physically incapable of managing their personal needs and financial affairs.
SECTION NINETEEN: RESOURCES AND SERVICES

The service delivery structure is designed to provide care and services to all clients without regard to age, sex, language, national origin or economic status. The clients served fit into the following criteria: (1) persons suspected of being or judicially determined to be unable to provide food, clothing or shelter due to mental illness; (2) persons suspected of being or judicially determined to be unable to manage financial resources or resist fraud or undue influences; (3) persons suspected of being or judicially determined to be unable to provide for personal needs of health, food, clothing or shelter; (4) Decedent Estates; (a) with no personal representative whose property is subject to loss, waste, injury or misappropriation; (b) when so ordered by the court; (c) if no other person has higher priority; or, (d) determined by the Public Administrator to be proper for the Public Administrator.

The mission of the Conservatorship division is to safeguard the lives and property of conservatees who cannot care for themselves, and to do so with the least possible restriction on the conservates’ lives. When a person is gravely disabled because of mental illness, injury, physical illness or dementia, and no one is available to assume responsibility for the functions of daily living, the PG/C may be determined by the court to be appropriate for handling the personal, medical and financial affairs of the person. Referrals come from hospitals (medical and psychiatric), Adult Protective Services, Public Health nurses, attorneys, banks, concerned friends and neighbors. When a referral is received, an initial screening and evaluation is done. If the case appears to be appropriate for PG/C handling, an investigator investigates the referral, verifies the facts and searches for a less restrictive solution that may meet the person’s needs. If the PG/C finds that a conservatorship is necessary, and there is no other person who is willing or able to serve in that role, the PG/C will petition the Court to be appointed conservator. If the PG/C is appointed as conservator, the client is assigned a Deputy Public Guardian who makes decisions regarding medical issues, legal matters, where to live, how assets are utilized, ensures all income is received and all bills paid with the goal of protecting and acting in the best interest of the client. In providing these client services, the PG/C interacts with County Counsel, Mental Health, Public Health Nursing, Veterans Administration, the County Jail, and the Social Security Administration.

F. Long Term Care Ombudsman Program (OMB) at Catholic Charities

1. Program Overview: The Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program (OMB) is mandated by federal law (Older Americans Act) and state law (Welfare and Institutions Code) to receive and investigate all complaints, including allegations of abuse, made by or on behalf of residents in long term care facilities, i.e. Nursing Facilities (nursing homes) and Residential Care Facilities for the Elderly (Board and Care, Assisted Living). Ombudsmen have legal access to these facilities and confidential access to the residents 7 days/week.

In Santa Clara County, financial abuse of a resident in a Skilled Nursing Facility (SNF) is investigated by APS.

In addition, the Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program has other unique state mandates to witness Durable Powers of Attorney for Health Care and Property Transfers (to certain parties associated with the long-term care facility and fair market value more than $100) for residents in nursing homes.
California's elder and dependent adult abuse law requires the Ombudsman Program to receive, respond to, and investigate any report of alleged or suspected abuse of any resident in any long-term care facility, including (Skilled) Nursing Facilities, Residential Care Facilities for the Elderly (60+), and Adult Residential Facilities (1859 years).

All alleged or suspected abuse occurring in long term care facilities must be reported to either the Ombudsman Program or local law enforcement.

OMB has strict federal confidentiality requirements that may impact the extent of the information of such allegations cross-reported to the appropriate licensing agency and to the Attorney General's Bureau of Medi-Cal Fraud and Elder Abuse Prosecution Unit and Law Enforcement.

The Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program's role is to be a visible and vocal community advocate for these frail, chronically ill, primarily elderly residents with emphasis on the protection of the residents' rights and promotion of quality of life and quality care.
Each law enforcement agency is encouraged to provide training for members of the agency.

1. Each law enforcement agency shall provide training for members of the agency.

2. The goals of the training are to inform officers of:
   a. The elder and dependent adult abuse laws;
   b. The law enforcement department’s elder and adult abuse policies and procedures;

II. INTERVIEWING VICTIMS

A. Special concerns when interviewing older victims:

1. Interviewing older victims can require special care and patience. Simple measures such as treating the person with respect and asking permission to enter the home or to be seated can help the victim to feel less anxious. Other strategies include:
   a. Speak slowly and clearly, and be patient in waiting for a response.
   b. Keep your weapon out of sight—-a weapon can be frightening.
   c. Address the victim by name, but do not use first names as this is considered disrespectful by many elderly persons.
   d. Indicate immediately that you are there to help.

2. Conduct a structured interview using predetermined questions. This is a way to obtain the facts needed to proceed with case without losing ground to confusion the victim may be feeling.

3. If the person is having difficulty remembering when an event occurred, offer memory cues like “At the time of the event, what television program were you watching?”

4. For hearing impaired persons, eliminate as much background noise as possible and use visual cues.

5. Ask if the person is having difficulty hearing you, and whether they have a hearing aid that would help.

6. Written communication can be used.

7. Some visually impaired people may not look directly at you because they see better in their peripheral zones.

8. Tell the victim what to expect during the investigation.

9. Minimize the number of interviews and the number of people present.

10. Allow the victim to describe the incident in their own words.
APPENDIX B: SUGGESTED QUESTIONS FOR VICTIM OF ELDER/DEPENDENT ADULT ABUSE

11. Be patient and reassuring. Some older people, particularly, those in crisis, may need time to collect their thoughts and may need to take frequent breaks.

12. Avoid unnecessary pressure.

13. Acknowledge the victim’s anxiety and try to discern its cause. For example, you may say, “You seem anxious. Are you concerned that your relative will find out that you have talked with me?”

15. Keep questions short.

16. Ask open-ended questions that encourage further discussion.

17. Accept and use victim’s terminology and language for acts, body parts, etc.

18. Avoid influencing the victim’s account of the alleged offense.

19. Even if the victim appears to be somewhat confused, do not discount the information.

20. Make every effort to obtain the fullest possible response before relying on information from others.

21. If you need another person to assist in communicating or providing information for the victim, conduct the conversation in the victim’s presence and look for signs of corroboration from the victim (e.g. nodding in agreement). Do not discuss the victim as if he or she is not in the room.

22. Do not discount a complaint because the victim is unwilling to cooperate.

23. Do not argue with the victim.

24. Assess the likelihood of retaliation. If a threat is present, arrange for protection.

25. Determine whom the victim first told about the abuse/neglect/fraud.

26. Show the victim records or other documents that suggest abuse. Record their response to each one that is in dispute.

27. Conclude the interview in such a fashion that the victim feels free to contact the investigator again.
APPENDIX B: SUGGESTED QUESTIONS FOR VICTIM OF ELDER/DEPENDENT ADULT ABUSE

28. Ensure that the victim is capable and has the means for contact. If not, take measures to facilitate follow-up with the victim.

29. Determine whether the witnesses are likely to be intimidated, made to feel guilty, or threatened with reprisal for providing testimony.

B. Victims with Dementia or Diminished Capacity

When interviewed patiently, persons with dementia, Alzheimer’s disease or other illnesses that diminished capacity, can often provide useful information. Be calm and reassuring as people with diminished capacity are very sensitive to feelings. Pay close attention to their reactions; emotional responses may reveal what they cannot express in words.

A sensitive approach to interviewing the person with diminished capacity may yield valuable results. Following are some strategies that may make the police interview more productive:

- Keep the interview area quiet and as free as possible from environmental distractions (e.g., TV or open window with traffic noise).

- Begin the interview with orienting information, such as the purpose of the interview and what you would like to accomplish.

- Offer a few words of reassurance.

- Relax and be yourself. Your degree of calmness is quickly sensed, just as any anxiety will be sensed.

- Acknowledge the person’s feelings. It shows your concern and that you are trying to understand their point of view.

- Speak slowly and in a soothing tone, without infantilizing the individual.

- Give the person with diminished capacity ample time to respond.

- Repeat questions as needed, using simple and concrete words.

- Remember that what has been asked may take longer to be understood.

- Give simple directions, one step at a time.

- Distraction or redirection may help to calm and refocus an individual who is upset.

- Document non-verbal reactions. For example, if the individual becomes agitated, frightened, or mute when asked about a certain person or situation, there may be a reason.

For further suggestions see Interviewing Techniques for Victims of Elder Abuse Who May Suffer From Alzheimer’s disease or Related Dementia ©2004 by Sue Beerman and Arlene Markarian.
If you find a lost and confused elderly person, call Medic Alert at Safe Return, 1-800-572-1122 to share information, even if the "wanderer" you find bears no pertinent identifying data.

C. Cultural Issues

Our communities are becoming more diverse. Since no cultural/ethnic group is immune from elder abuse, it is likely that the victim and/or perpetrator in an elder abuse case may be from a culture different than your own. In order to effectively intervene in these situations, it is important to have an understanding of the cultural factors that might influence the victim or the victim's family.

Cultural factors may inhibit the reporting of elder abuse crimes or cooperation with the police if the crimes are reported:

- Cultural norms of perseverance, silent suffering and quiet endurance are valued in many communities. These qualities are also associated with victimization.

- Consequently, elders may deny or minimize problems, or refuse to cooperate with authorities.

- Some cultures place great value on family interdependence and multi-generational households. They may fear the social consequences of bringing shame to the family.

- Some cultures believe that maintaining community or family honor is more important than the interests of the individuals and that the authorities should not be involved in what they consider "family matters." Laws and customs in some countries forbid intervention in family affairs without the permission of families.

Elders who are immigrants may also have fears in relation to police based on experiences in their country of origin. They may not know they have rights in this country regardless of their immigrant status. They may fear deportation if the police get involved. Empathy and reassurance can help to reduce these fears.

Good cross-cultural communication begins with respect. As with any older victim/witness, begin by addressing a person formally, using their last name.

Cultural beliefs often emerge during interviews:

- While a gentle touch on the shoulder may be comforting to some elderly victims, in some cultures this is considered an intrusion or offensive.

- In some cultures, it is considered disrespectful to make eye contact with an authority figure such as a police officer, while in others it is rude not to make eye contact.

- Some victims may be reluctant to reveal injuries that are covered with clothing due to cultural customs of modesty or religious beliefs. Be careful not to interpret an unwillingness to show injuries as an indication that there are no injuries.
APPENDIX B: SUGGESTED QUESTIONS FOR VICTIM OF ELDER/DEPENDENT ADULT ABUSE

While culture does play a significant role in shaping a person's behavior, it should not be seen as an automatic predictor of how a given victim will respond. Each case is unique and should be assessed keeping relevant aspects of culture in mind.

D. Language
Many elders who live in insular ethnic communities do not speak English. In these situations, it is important to use an impartial interpreter. Avoid using a family member, friend or neighbor to communicate with the victim or with the suspected offender. This is likely to bias the translation. The interpreter may be involved in the abusive situation or may give an inaccurate translation due to their personal bias. The victim may also be reluctant to speak honestly in front of an acquaintance or family member.

E. Fears that the Victim May Have
1. May fear retribution, such as isolation or emotional/verbal abuse.
2. Abuser may be an adult child or grandchild. It may be very difficult for a parent to testify against a child.
3. The abuse may cast doubt on their ability to live alone and they will be placed in a nursing home.
4. The abuser may be a spouse of many years.

<tr>
<td>Neglect:</td>
<td>&quot;Neglect&quot; means either of the following:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The negligent failure of any person having the care or custody of an elderly or a dependent adult to exercise that degree of care that a reasonable person in a like position would exercise. (Neglect includes but is not limited to the following: failure to assist in personal hygiene or in the provision of food, clothing or shelter, failure to provide medical care for physical and mental health needs; failure to protect from health and safety hazard; failure to prevent malnutrition or dehydration.)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Self-Neglect:</td>
<td>The negligent failure of the person themselves to exercise that degree of care that a reasonable person in a like position would exercise. (W&amp;I 15610.57)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Physical Abuse:</td>
<td>&quot;Physical Abuse&quot; is defined as constituting any one of several crimes. Those crimes include but are not limited to assault; battery; assault with a deadly weapon; unreasonable physical constraints, or prolonged or continued deprivation of food or water; and sexual assault. For a complete definition of &quot;physical abuse&quot; please see Welfare and Institutions Code Section 15610.63.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Power of Attorney:</td>
<td>A &quot;Power of Attorney&quot; is a written instrument executed by a person who has the capacity to contract that grants authority to another person to act on their behalf. The person granting such authority is known as the &quot;principal&quot;; the person designated to act on the principal's behalf is known as the &quot;attorney-in-fact.&quot; (Probate Code Sections 4014, 4022, 4026.) The &quot;Attorney In Fact&quot; owes the highest fiduciary duty to the principal recognized by the law and cannot use their position to take advantage of the principal. A power of attorney may be drafted to authorize the attorney-in-fact to make decisions with respect to a single issue, such as, medical treatment; it may be more general and include authority to make decisions with regard to the principal's finances and it may be 'durable' (survives the incompetence of the maker) or 'nondurable' (terminates with the incompetence of the principal). A copy of the Power of Attorney must be obtained and analyzed to determine the authority conferred and under what circumstances is the authority granted. Regardless of the type of power of attorney, it does not authorize the attorney-in-fact to make decisions that contradict the principal's wishes and it does not authorize the attorney-in-fact to transfer the principal's property into the attorney-in-fact's name or to otherwise misappropriate the principal's assets.</td>

<th>Trust/Trustee:</th>
<th>Definition</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A trust is a contract entered into between a trustor and a trustee, at a time when both parties have capacity that is drafted for the benefit of a beneficiary. Real or personal property is said to be held in “trust” if it is held by a party (the “trustee”) for the benefit of others (the “beneficiaries”). The person signing the trust instrument creating the trust is known as the “grantor” or “trustor.” A copy of the trust instrument must be obtained and analyzed to determine the rights and duties of the parties. The trustee owes a fiduciary duty to the grantor to manage the trust assets according to the provisions of the trust, for the economic benefit of all of the beneficiaries. (Probate Code Section 82; and Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition.) There are various types of trusts; however, none of them authorize the trustee to act in a manner that is in conflict with the grantor’s wishes as expressed in the trust instrument; in conflict with the interest of the beneficiaries, or for the trustee’s benefit. Therefore, any of the following acts when undertaken by a trustee should be examined closely: selling property that the grantor does not want sold; placing trust property in the trustee’s name as an individual; failing to keep accurate accountings of the trust property; failing to follow the directions given in the trust instrument; giving or gifting trust assets to them self (the trustee) or to anyone other than a named beneficiary pursuant to the trust provisions.</td>

<td>A will is a written declaration of a person’s wishes as to the disposition of their property, to take effect after the person’s death. (Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, Probate Code Sections 88; 6100 et seq.) The person creating a will (“testator”) must be at least 18 years of age and be of “sound mind,” and the will must follow certain formalities of execution as provided by statute (See Probate Code sections 6100 and 6100.5 for more information regarding the requisite mental capacity to execute a will.) A will has no effect regarding the ownership of property until the testator dies and a beneficiary under a will has no present interest in such property.</td>
