

Prison Rape Elimination Act of 2003 (PREA)

The Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) of 2003 is a federal law established to address the elimination of sexual assault and rape in correctional systems. PREA applies to all federal, state and local prisons, jails, police lock-ups, private facilities and community settings such as residential facilities.

Zero-Tolerance for Sexual Assault, Sexual Harassment and Sexual Misconduct

The Santa Clara County Sheriff's Office has a zero-tolerance sexual abuse policy. It is the policy of the Santa Clara County Sheriff's Office that sexual abuse by an employee, contractor, volunteer, inmate or other non-employee with a business association with the Sheriff's Office is prohibited. The Santa Clara County Sheriff's Office will comply with PREA standards in their entirety and implement procedures for appropriate prevention, detection, intervention and treatment for all victims of sexual abuse.
