Learners are responsible for obtaining prior manager/supervisor approval to participate in any course, including e-Learning. e-Learning participation must not be during work time that results in overtime compensation.