

SANTA CLARA COUNTY KNOWING YOUR RIGHTS BUILDS POWER

A WELL-INFORMED COMMUNITY CAN PROTECT ITSELF

The County of Santa Clara Office of Immigrant Relations cares deeply about all residents, no matter their immigration status. We believe that knowing your rights builds power. The more informed we are, the better we can make decisions that are right for ourselves and our families.

YOUR ELIGIBILITY TO SERVICES, REGARDLESS OF IMMIGRATION STATUS

The County of Santa Clara funds and provides services to all residents regardless of immigration status. You and your family may be eligible for the County's health services, housing programs, and others.

RESOURCES THAT HELP YOU AND YOUR FAMILY MAKE INFORMED DECISIONS

Every family is different. To make the right choice for your family, consult with trusted legal service providers. The Office of Immigrant Relations can connect you to a variety of agencies that can answer your questions for free or at low cost.

WE FUND THE FOLLOWING ORGANIZATIONS THAT PROVIDE FREE OR LOW-COST LEGAL ADVICE ON IMMIGRATION AND PUBLIC BENEFITS:

- Bay Area Legal Aid: (408) 850-7066 English, Spanish
- Asian Law Alliance: (408) 287-9710 English, Vietnamese, Chinese, Tagalog, Korean, Spanish
- Law Foundation: (408) 293-4790 English, Vietnamese, Chinese, Spanish, and more

*Law Foundation does not specialize in immigration law but individuals with questions about using public benefits are encouraged to call

For updates on the public charge rule or other immigration policies, visit www.sccgov.org/publiccharge and follow us on Facebook @sccimmi