County of Santa Clara Officials to Address National Concerns About Potential for Voter Intimidation During Presidential Election

In response to national concerns about voter intimidation during the upcoming Presidential General Election on November 8, 2016, County officials will reassure the community that polling locations will be open to the public and voters will be able to safely exercise their right to vote. County leaders will highlight election deadlines and important opportunities to participate in and observe the election process.

WHO: Board President Dave Cortese
County Executive Jeffrey V. Smith
Registrar of Voters Shannon Bushey

WHEN: Wednesday, October 19, 2016, 11:00 a.m.

WHERE: Auditorium, Registrar of Voters' Office
1555 Berger Drive, San Jose, CA

Visual opportunities on site will include: early voting, vote by mail ballot processing, and voting machine testing and programming.

Interviews will also be available in Spanish, Vietnamese, Chinese, Hindi and Tagalog.
