Join the Silicon Valley Bicycle Coalition for
Bike Commuting 101 &
On-Bike Commute Safety Rides

FEBRUARY CLASSES

Do you want to be more healthy and active in 2020? Ditch the car and get on your bike!

In the Bike Commuting 101 Class, you will prepare for bike commuting, receive practical urban riding safety tips, learn about rules of the road, and receive Bike to Work Day 2020 resources.

In the On-Bike Commute Safety Ride Class, you will gain confidence to ride on the road. You will learn signaling, balance, avoiding obstacles, and how to handle the bike in various road situations.

Commuters of all levels are encouraged to come learn from one another and share their tips with fellow riders.

Requirements:
- Bring a bicycle in good riding condition - check air, brakes and chain in advance!
- Bring a helmet - we highly encourage the use of a helmet.
- Dress comfortably for a short, casual bike ride.

Attending Bike Commuting 101 is not a prerequisite for the ride. All level of riders are welcome to join on the ride so long as you feel comfortable riding a bike.

Registration is required. To view full class list sign up at http://scclearn.sccgov.org
