Update 2014-11: Common-Place Handbook
I-766 Employment Authorization Card

Background
U.S. employers must check to make sure all employees, regardless of citizenship or national origin, are allowed to work in the United States. Individuals who are not citizens or permanent residents, are required to apply for an Employment Authorization Document (EAD) to prove they may work in the United States.

Changes

Implementation
The changes described in this Update are effective immediately.

Other Programs
This Update applies to all programs that use the I-766, “Employment Authorization Card”.
